Searching for earth-friendly, non-toxic, organic products sourced from around the world just became easier with a new one-stop shopping website. Planitgreenhome.com features linens from Italy, beauty products from France and the UK, and recycled platters from India that are U.S.-tested for safety. The plethora of products for the home, travel, personal beauty and gift giving on the site features some of the more respected names in green manufacturing, including Anna Sova, Bentley, Bambu, EO, Lumares, Nuxe, NVEY, Red Flowers, Sante and Under The Canopy.

Planitgreenhome.com was founded by Shelly Brown, a concerned consumer and mother desiring an environmentally-friendly, safe home environment for her family. Brown personally hand selects the products that meet the highest quality standards in organic, non-toxic, chemical-free merchandise and gift items at the best prices.

“The products chosen for Planitgreenhome.com are targeted to those consumers who want their homes to be green and clean and non-polluting,” said Brown. “Planitgreenhome.com has something for everyone from luxurious linens to natural cosmetics to soy and bamboo gifts to toxic-free cleaners and beauty products at the most affordable price points.”

Planitgreenhome.com offers 100% certified organic cotton bed linens, spa quality towels and robes, natural and organic personal beauty products, sustainable trays, platters and bowls, travel-sized products for on-the-go, and an assortment of eco-friendly cleaners. A special gifts section offers essential oils, soy candles, body lotions, fragrances, gift and hostess sets, and 100% recycled gift wrap.
